Feedback from our clients

"We engaged Newport Group because we felt our executive communication plumbing was plugged and even the simplest of tasks weren't getting done without becoming an ordeal."

"Trust has increased and we are now comfortably accountable to each other and our collective purpose."

"The initial step in your process, the business review, gave me tremendous clarity on where we need to go."

Note from Tim

This is our 5th Newport Executive Briefing. Recently a regular attendee suggested that he would find benefit in listening to one of Newport's clientele address the group in a testimonial / real world format.

Recognizing a great idea, I am very pleased that John F. Kitchen of Brenlo Ltd. and formerly Lansing Buildall has agreed to tell his family's story of business growth, what he learned, and as he says, what he is still trying to figure out.

I look forward to seeing you on the 7th for what I know will be a great new direction with the Newport Briefing concept.
